

Ukraine's Quest For Mature Nation Statehood A Roundtable

S T A T E M E N T O F P U R P O S E

As Ukraine approaches its tenth year of independence, a parliamentary majority of centrist and national democratic forces has coalesced; a reform minded government, under the leadership of Prime Minister Victor Yushchenko, has been appointed. Equally important, a national referendum essentially has expanded the constitutional powers of President Leonid Kuchma, who has committed himself to implementing accelerated correctives. Thus, the Ukrainian nation stands at the threshold of broad and vital legal, social and economic transformations.

its prospects for further advancement, including fuller integration into the Euro-Atlantic community and stronger bilateral relations with the United States.

The goal of the Roundtable will be to provide, inter alia, a valuable cache of information, analysis and insight pertinent to U.S. policy formulation vis-à-vis Ukraine for the administration and Congress that take office following the November 7, 2000 elections.

“Ukraine’s Quest for Mature Nation Statehood: A Roundtable”, an event scheduled to be held September 19/20, 2000 in Washington D.C., will bring together prominent representatives from academia and the governments of Ukraine and the U.S. to assess Ukraine’s progress in consolidating its national independence and to evaluate
