ANNOUNCEMENT

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE ANTI-IMPERIAL BLOC OF NATIONS TO HOLD CONFERENCE IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Il. --- American Friends of the Anti-Imperial Bloc of Nations (AF-ABN) will hold a multi-ethnic conference entitled "The End of an Empire."

The conference will be held on December 7, 2025 at the American Ukrainian Youth Association, 2457 W. Chicago Ave., Chicago, Illinois beginning at 10:00 AM.

Speakers from across the United States and Ukraine, including representatives from various ethnic organizations and entities, will present strategies for the dissolution of the russian federation and formalization of independent nation-states.

Mary Krutiak, Conference Chair stated: "Now is the time to prepare for the collapse of the kremlin terror state and the revival of dozens of oppressed nations imprisoned in the russian federation. They yearn for freedom and self-determination, as russia continues to suffer defeats at the hand of the Ukrainian defenders. Experts will share their vision for the fate of these minorities as the imperialistic russian regime fades into a post-colonial diminished state."

About the American Friends of the Anti-Imperial Bloc of Nations

The Anti-Imperial Bloc of Nations (ABN) is an international coalition of national liberation movements. AF-ABN was created to be a vehicle for solidarity, education, and political action in support of the 41 nations still living under Moscow's control and influence.

The Mission of AF-ABN

AF-ABN's work contributes directly to protecting American national interests by:

- Weakening a major adversary: russia remains one of the most aggressive challengers to U.S. strategic interests.
- Preventing future wars: Supporting resistance movements abroad reduces the likelihood of large-scale conflicts that might demand American intervention.
- Creating strong allies: Free, sovereign nations born out of resistance are likely to become close strategic partners with the United States.
- Upholding democratic norms: Defending global freedom protects the ideological and moral foundation of American democracy.

Vision

- Free, sovereign, and independent nations rooted in faith, family, and freedom
- A doctrine of peace through strength, rejecting appeasement and coercion
- A stronger, freer world that protects and promotes American values
